AYS SOVIETS TRYING TO BREAK UN

Brown On Way To Vancouver

TORONTO (CP) — A Trans-Canada Air Lines official said Sunday that Douglas Brown, 35, enroute to Vancouver to face charges in connection with the theft there of $525,000, will leave Toronto at 7 p.m. today. Brown will be escorted by Det.-Sgt. William Porteous of Vancouver who met him at Idlewild Airport in New York after Brown was hustled by police from Rio de Janeiro last Friday.

Toronto police said it was impossible to obtain flight reservations Sunday for Brown and Porteous, who officially arrested Brown as they crossed the United States-Canada border Saturday. Brown, a driver for Loomis Armored Car Service in Vancouver, disappeared during the Victoria Day weekend. About $200,000 was found in a car near the Vancouver airport.

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia—Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie (standing on rostrum, left background) makes opening speech of African summit conference on unity May 22nd. He challenged the 30 African heads of state to create a unified African organization now or be held guilty of having shirked their duty. In conference's second session, May 23rd, Uganda Prime Minister Milton Obote protested to President Kennedy the "inhuman treatment" of Negroes in Alabama and charged that an "iron curtain" had been drawn around recent racial troubles in Birmingham.—(UPI Radiotelephoto).

Stevenson Raps Soviets For Financial Veto

UNITED NATIONS AP—United Nations Ambassador Adlai Stevenson said Sunday the Soviet Union seeks to impose a financial veto on the United Nations and that it will eventually plunge the world organization into crisis.

Stevenson made the statement on his television program during a discussion with Muhammad Zafrulla Khan of Pakistan, president of the UN General Assembly.

Zafrulla Khan expressed concern about the Soviet Union's refusal to pay for UN peace-keeping operations in the Congo and the Middle East as well as its recent announcement that it does not intend to pay for certain other activities under the regular UN budget. Zafrulla Khan claimed that under the UN charter the Soviet Union could automatically lose its vote in the General Assembly next year.

Stevenson said the big issue ahead is "whether the United Nations is to survive as an effective kind of instrument to keep the peace... or whether it can only survive on Soviet terms."

Cracks Down Nasserites

AP — in Syria where Ba'athists also are cracking down on Nasserite movements pledged full support to Iraq. Baghdad radio lashed "Cairo propaganda" but at the same time the revolutionary council repeated that Iraq is going ahead with plans to join the United Arab Republic in September.

Syria also has repeatedly asserted its determination to join the U.A.R. as scheduled. Plans for the tripartite union were launched after Ba'athists toppled Iraq Dictator Abdel Karim Kassem Feb. 8 and took power with a coup in Syria March 8.

The developments in Baghdad apparently cancelled a proposed Arab summit meeting set for Tuesday in Cairo, at which Nasser was to meet President Abdel Salam Aref of Iraq and Gen. Louni Atlassi, head of the Damascus revolutionary council.

Pope John Suffers Another Relapse

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John is seriously weakened again by loss of blood from recurrent hemorrhages and his condition is causing grave concern in the Vatican.

His doctors have insisted the Pope remain in bed.

The 81-year-old pontiff's Rome physician, Piero Mazzoni, remained near the Pope's bedside Sunday after five consecutive nights in the Vatican. Dr. Antonio Gasbarrini, the Pope's personal physician, was summoned from his home in Bologna.

Seriousness of the Pope's condition was underscored dramatically Sunday when he gave in reluctantly to weakness and the urgings of his doctors and cancelled his usual Sunday mid-day blessing of the crowd in St. Peter's Square.

He had set his heart on doing so again Sunday. But Vatican sources said he suffered another hemorrhage during the night, and still another two hours before noon.

His doctors ordered him to bed, these informants said, with warnings that even the effort of climbing the two steep steps to his window might provoke further, dangerous losses of blood. The Pope's illness has been described officially only as a stomach disorder with anemia. But there is widespread belief that the stomach ailment is an ulcer or cancer, causing the hemorrhages which result in anemia.

African Leaders Call For Boycott S. Africa

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (Reuters) — African heads of state at the final session of their 31-nation summit conference here Saturday called on all African countries to sever diplomatic and consular relations with white-ruled South Africa and Portugal.

The appeals were made in a resolution on "decolonization" calling for an effective boycott of South African and Portuguese foreign trade, including the closing of ports and airports to their ships and aircraft and banning overflights by their planes.

The heads of state also decided to promote a volunteer corps in each of their countries to aid "African (Negro) national liberation movements," according to conference sources.

The sources said they promised to train Negro nationalists "in all sectors," to create special funds to assist them and to facilitate the transit of equipment for them.

The sources said the heads of state also decided to set up a committee to co-ordinate aid from African states to national liberation movements.

No Major Reversal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite a congressional outcry and a price setback Friday, a market chief predicted Sunday there will be no major reversal of the recent sugar-price surge for perhaps a year or two.

Earl P. McHardy, president of the New York Sugar Exchange, said prices have skyrocketed because a few months ago a world price of around 2½ cents was so low that producers could not make a profit.

He added, in a recorded television interview: "I think that there is little likelihood of prices declining materially during the next few months or possibly a year or two."

May Join NATO Nuclear Force

WASHINGTON (AP)—French Foreign Minister Couve de Murville is understood to have assured President Kennedy that the de Gaulle government aims at eventual co-ordination of its independent nuclear force with other nuclear forces in the Atlantic alliance.

This means—as the French have previously indicated—that President de Gaulle is keeping the door open to nuclear co-operation and hopes to narrow the split in NATO that has grown out of his decision to build an independent nuclear force for France.

Couve de Murville and Kennedy conferred at the White House for 70 minutes Saturday. Later Couve de Murville and other French officials lunched with Secretary of State Rusk and a party of state department officials.

In their wide-ranging discussion Kennedy and Couve de Murville took up the possibility that Communist China will develop nuclear weapons, a prospect which would require a shift in the West's security arrangements.

Moro Becomes Italy's Premier

ROME (AP)—Christian Democrat Leader Aldo Moro has emerged from behind the scenes of Italian politics and been formally designated Italy's next premier.

He said he will try to form a centre-left government "faithful to the Atlantic alliance."

Until a general election last month upset the Italian political scene, Moro was the Christian Democrats' "Mr. Inside" while Premier Amintore Fanfani was their "Mr. Outside."

But the election tarnished Fanfani's image, and President Antonio Segni turned Saturday to Moro, a soft-spoken, 48-year-old Bari law professor who had been largely instrumental in forging the centre-left coalition that Fanfani headed.

It was a coalition of their Christian Democrat party and the Republican and Democratic Socialist parties. The Marxist Socialist party of Pietro Nenni provided indirect support in Parliament.

Minutes after receiving the mandate from Segni, Moro said he will try to base his government on the same parties.

which control about 60 per cent of the votes in Parliament. REASSURES RIGHTISTS Moro tried to reassure rightist Christian Democrats, who always have opposed the "leftward. He said he would seek to "bring to life a government capable of meeting the fundamental interests of the country and faithful to the Atlantic alliance."

Critics of the centre-left government have pointed out that the Marxist Socialists once opposed Italy's membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Moro, following Italian procedure, did not immediately accept the premiership. A statement from the presidential palace said he "reserved his acceptance."

Steal Dynamite

ST. JOHN'S, Que. (CP)—Thieves made off with a considerable amount of dynamite detonating gear during the weekend from a stone quarry in this centre 30 miles east of Montreal.

A total of 100 electrical caps, 500 fuse caps, 300 feet of mesh and 90 fuse lighters was stolen from the Philippe Baillargon quarries.

Provincial police investigated the case but said there was no evidence directly linking the theft with the Front de liberation Quebecois, the separatist terrorist organization.

The FLQ claims responsibility for numerous blasts in the last 11 weeks including a blast that killed a night watchman behind a Montreal army recruiting centre April 20. An army engineer was injured severely while trying to clear bombs from mailboxes in suburban Westmount May 17.

Birmingham Awaits Court Ruling

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Negro leaders planned a meeting today in outwardly calm Birmingham while the city awaited a federal court ruling on a public school desegregation suit.

A decision from U.S. District Judge Seybourn H. Lynne is expected this week.

Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth, head of the Birmingham integration campaign, said in Cincinnati that Negro leaders will discuss a recent Supreme Court ruling against arrests for lunch counter sit-ins and a federal judge's opinion that street demonstrators were illegally arrested.

"But we are not going to push this," he said. "The new administration should have a chance to see where it stands."

Shuttlesworth, who returns today to stand trial for a marching demonstration, said he hopes Mayor Albert Boutwell and nine councilmen, confirmed last week as the legal government, will provide progressive leadership.

The Negro leader said he does not know when bi-racial talks will resume. Under terms of an agreement between Negroes and white businessmen, talks were to reopen two weeks after the May 10 pact.

Sentiment and Tradition

We were not very pleased with radio Friday morning because, from the usual raucous routine music being played, one would not suspect it was Empire Day.

We had hoped to hear some of those wonderful songs: "Glorious Devon" (home of our ancestors), "There'll Always Be An England", "Men of Harlech", some Gilbert and Sullivan, other Old Country songs and of course a few choral works for which so many eminent British composers are famous.

It would have been a very easy and pleasant task for announcers to go through record files and plan an Empire Day program because the wealth of musical material mentioned is unlimited. Perhaps, because the often horrible and so-called popular music is filling all the record libraries in broadcasting studios, there is no room for those old sentimental songs which although part and parcel of the writer's generation fit not into the pattern of present-day radio programming?

One of the debits of Confederation has been the gradual weaning away of Newfoundland from the Old Country, caused in no small way by our becoming Canadianized. Although the crest of Canada observes a proclaimed holiday (Victoria Day) May 24 (an alternative name for Empire Day), little thought is given throughout the land to the once strong ties with the Motherland, and their significant meaning.

Here of course we have always used Empire Day as the springboard for our angling season. More thought lately has been given to "going fishing" than to the occasion for which the holiday was granted.

Not having a child and therefore not seeing the curriculum in use in our schools, all we can hope is that there is as liberal an amount of British history being taught to-day as we enjoyed. Once the teaching becomes watered down then will begin the gradual process of breaking a great tradition and finally our children will know little or nothing about Britain, the Commonwealth and Newfoundland's important and historic connections with both.

We feel that break with tradition has started; so, how can we stop it? As much as we like being a Canadian we still feel we owe more than lip service to the greatness of Britain—not just singing the National Anthem and favouring the Union Jack.

People from outside our boundaries have come to live and work here. Let them not bring their own preferences to the forefront too often because they are tenants here and should respect our traditions and help foster rather than destroy those long-standing and, we hope imperishable associations with the Old Country.

Once again it has been the commercial worker who did not benefit by the Empire Day holiday. In other words, it was just a changeover for the day observed as the weekly holiday. Civil servants now do very well by not losing their Saturday holiday and the special days are really bonus holidays. We are not envious but think the merchants could have been a little more realistic with the Empire Day holiday and extended it to include Saturday. All they had to do was to have two open night periods earlier last week so that the required 40 hours of work were given by the staffs concerned.

Proclamations need not be honoured, and are not always. Witness the federal proclamation making Empire Day, May 20! Some of our firms which prefer the Saturday holiday by-passed Friday as a holiday and kept going as usual on that so-called holiday. We do not wonder at outsiders being surprised and amazed at the manner in which special holidays are observed—or ignored here!

EDGAR ALLAN POE'S "TALES OF TERROR"

Millions of American movie fans and Edgar Allan Poe mystery lovers who were thrilled by "House of Usher", "The Pit and the Pendulum", and "The Premature Burial", are in for the biggest thrill chiller motion picture treat of all time when American International's "Poe's Tales of Terror" comes to town.

This time it's not one, but three of Poe's most terrifying stories, tales which no one has ever before dared to film. Now, American International Pictures, which made the other Poe thrillers so unforgettable, has come up with the ultimate in film entertainment.

Vincent Price (in an unique triple role), Peter Lorre, and Basil Rathbone, whose very names bring shivers to movie fans, are the stars of "Poe's Tales of Terror". Add four beautiful and talented actresses, Dobra Paget, Joyce Jameson, Maggie Pierce, and Leona Gage and the result is a guarantee of unsurpassed motion picture excitement and thrills.

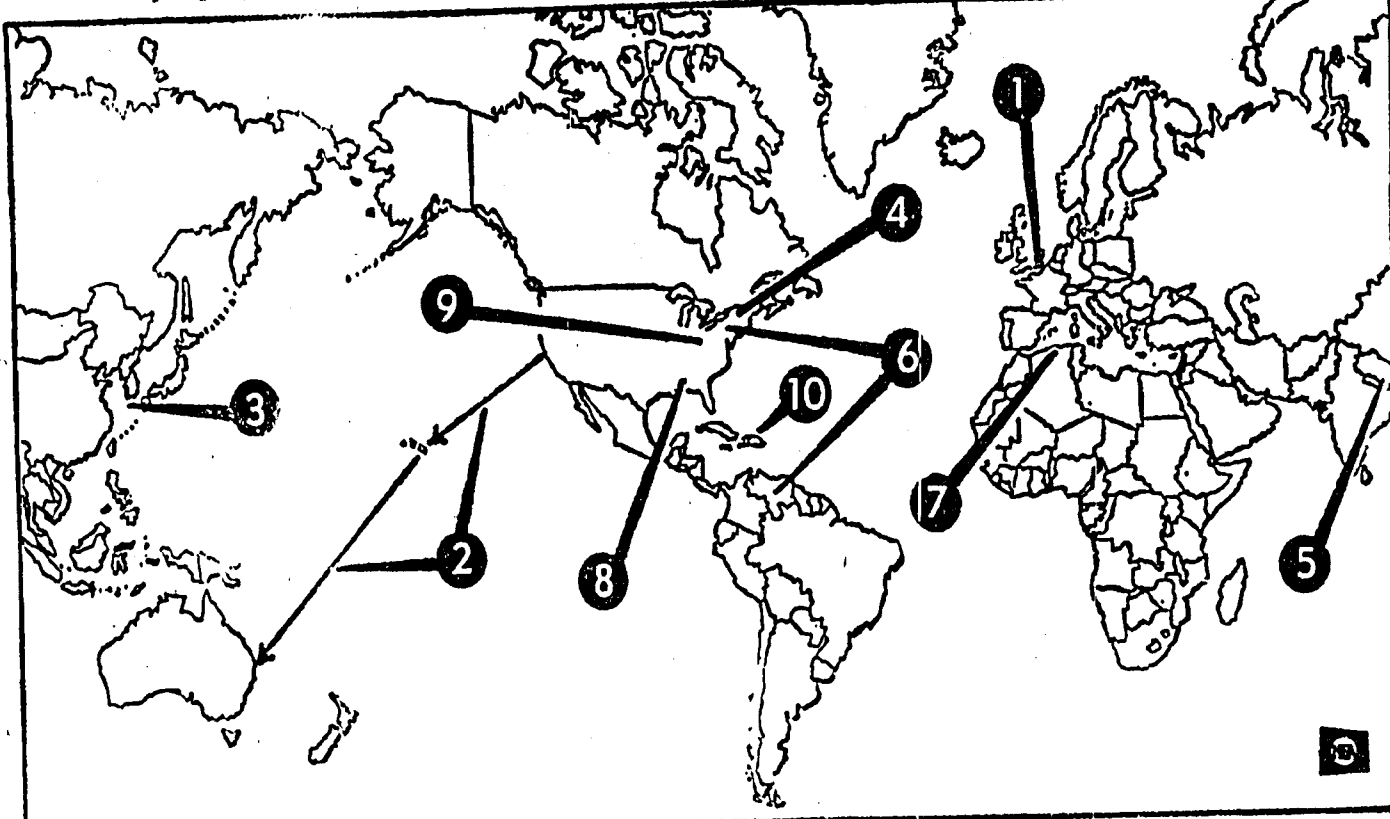

The three Edgar Allan Poe stories upon which "Tales of Terror" is based are "The Black Cat", "Morella", and "The Facts in the Case of M. Valdemar". These bring to the screen for the first time in one picture all the gripping psychological terror elements which have made Poe's the most memorable works of their kind in all of fiction literature. These elements add up to Poe's most chilling themes of horror—burial alive, a return from the grave, and the fiendish use of hypnotism.

In "The Black Cat", Peter Lorre teams with Vincent Price and Joyce Jameson to bring to life one of the most famous of all Poe tales—a suspense story of a drunkard's terrible revenge against his faithless wife and her lover.

In "Morella", Vincent Price appears with Maggie Pierce and Leona Gage in an entirely different role. It's the epic story

WHAT AND WHERE? ..... A New News game for readers

In each of the numbered spots marked on this map a newsworthy event occurred recently. As a newspaper reader, check your memory and your knowledge by identifying the event through the location. The accompanying box will help you do it.

Chinese Food Problems Imp...

PEKING (Reuters) — has made steady progress in the last year toward solving its food problems and the situation now is rapidly improving, diplomatic observers here said.

The observers hesitated the word "normal" for the big country with its changing conditions. It can be said to generalize about especially since most still closed to all but the occasional traveller.

Conditions vary enormously from the different areas, depending on weather and other factors. By Western standards, the "normal" conditions mean a monotonous diet based on vegetables and grain, with the north, the grain is wheat, the south, rice.

Nevertheless, the observers agree enough reliable information has reached Peking to make it fairly certain that things are generally better over China.

About a year ago, the controls and rationing had eased, at first mainly on tables and fruit.

NURSING AS A CAREER

If there are no rich nurses, there are no unemployed ones either. With the demand ever increasing for more nurses in hospitals, more in public health, more in schools, more in industrial factories and business establishments, more in the clinical specialties, more in the armed forces—there are simply not enough to go around.

Edith Patton Lewis gives a picture of the many and varied activities that go with the profession of nursing in "Nurses—Careers Within a Career in Professional Nursing." This book discusses not only the functions of the nurse in today's world but also the different opportunities for practicing the profession.

SINKING THE BISMARK
In the spring of 1941, according to Captain Russell Grenfell, Britain's fortunes were low and the situation of the war at sea was so bad that the British War Cabinet was on the point of deciding that "it would be contrary to the national interest to publish any more monthly figures of the tonnage sunk." But before the month was out an event had taken place which gave a tremendous boost to national morale. This was, to use the title of Captain Grenfell's book, The Bismarck Episode.

In his book, Captain Grenfell gives a day by day account, beginning on May 21st, of the discovery, the chase and finally the destruction on May 27th of the great German battle ship when the "shattered leviathan, her colours still flying, silently heeled over to port, turned bottom up and disappeared beneath the waves."

of a wife who returns from the grave to wreak a terrible revenge upon her husband and daughter.

TRUE FICTION

C. C. Bergius's The Noble Forger, a best-seller in Germany and now translated into English, is a novel based on a scandal which shocked Europe in the early nineteenth century.

One Charles Montague escapes from revolutionary France with a friend, Peter Von Batou. When Von Batou is killed, Montague assumes his identity and eventually reaches Austria where he is welcomed as Von Batou by the aristocratic relatives of his friend. Montague then undertakes a career of forgery which brings him wealth and power until the inevitable day of reckoning when he is exposed and tried as a criminal.

RESTORING FURNITURE
Are you one of those who rejoice in restoring wood to its original lustre and freshness? Perhaps you can't resist buying that old bench or table or chair or even a picture frame because you have the itch to restore it by a refinishing job.

The book for you is Furniture Refinishing at Home by Nina Glenn Joyner. This little manual tells you what tools and supplies are needed for "taking down" the old surfaces, how the necessary repairs are made, and how the natural finish is restored. It discusses wax shellac and oil finish; painting decoration, the use of mosaic and the applique of prints.

WEDDING TOASTS
The ceremonial of toasts is an important part of the large wedding reception in Canada. Quite often a master of ceremonies is invited to preside. He is usually a friend of the family of the bride or the groom and he plans the procedure of toasts and responses "... Though usually endowed with poise and a ready wit," says Marguerite Bently in Wedding Etiquette, "he must make himself subordinate to the occasion and not dominate the scene. In other words, he must stimulate others to speak, and at the same time be ready to fill in any awkward pauses."

LOOKING BACK
In only fifty years ago, Gladys Hasty Carroll looks back at life as it was in the early 1900's among the scenes of New England that she knows so well.

Using the members of her own family she brings to life a rich and colourful picture organized around the twelve months of the year, each season bringing with it appropriate tasks and pleasures. Among the people themselves are the grandfather and patriarch of the family, his hard working son and his lovely wife, their irascible children, and superb Aunt Winnie, teacher of the local school and the object of many a young man's admiration. The book sparkles with humor and insight.

"SODOM AND GOMORRAH"

Bringing to the widescreen in DeLuxe color the rich Biblical drama of the world's most notorious kingdom of sin and sacrilege, "Sodom and Gomorrah" is set to open today at the Paramount Theatre. This lavish multi-million dollar picture is a Titanus production which 20th Century-Fox is releasing.

In the film, Stewart Granger stars as Lot, who leads the Hebrews into the Valley of the Jordan and into Sodom; Pier Angeli plays Ildith, Lot's wife who turns into a pillar of salt; Stanley Baker portrays Astorah, Prince of Sodom; Rossana Podesta is Shuah, Lot's daughter; and Anouk Aimee is Bera, the pleasure-mad Queen of Sodom.

A startling feeling of reality was gained by more than 100 days on location in Morocco out of the 11 months required to film this spectacular production. The City of Sodom, as seen in the picture, is actually a fortified desert village carved out of rock some 4000 years ago on the southern slopes of the Atlas Mountains in southern Morocco. This was Ait-Benhaddou, a living setting right out of the Old Testament, untouched in the film except for a towered wall built at the foot of the town to serve as the entrance to Sodom.

Robert Aldrich had the herculean task of directing this Goffredo Lombardo-Joseph E. Levine presentation, with Maurizio Prosser. Director Aldrich used some 3000 native extras for the mass scenes of the film. These ranged from Arab and Hebrew tribes living in the area, to several thousand Moroccan cavalrymen who participated in the breath-taking battle sequences.

Daily, the troupe had to awake at dawn, ride jeeps 40 miles across the desert, fighting sand and winds, to reach the set, then work all day in a broiling sun and finally ride back to their primitive quarters. They endured the severe contrast of the desert climate, from 110-degree temperatures during the day to near freezing at night.

A half-dozen languages were spoken on the location sets, ranging from New Yorkese to Oxford English, from Italian to French to Hebrew and Arab. The production units had to work in special shifts because of the diverse religions of the personnel. On Fridays the Arabs celebrated their Sabbath, on Saturdays the Hebrews rested and on Sundays the Christians observed their holy day.

"Alp" is a term applied to the summer pastures of the Alpine mountains. Situated just below the snow line, they are freed from snow each spring and become the centers of pastoral life. ## Insuring Voice

LONDON (AP)—British boxing promoter Jack Solomons said Wednesday he is insuring the voice of American heavyweight Cassius Clay for $20,000 ($50,000). Clay, known as the Louisville Lip for his verbal abilities, is due to arrive here Monday for his June 18 fight with British heavyweight champion Henry Cooper at London's Wembley Stadium.

"I have booked Clay for so many public appearances, including radio, television and press interviews, that I can't run the risk of him drying up on me," Solomons told reporters.

"Mind you, this boy has had so much practice that I don't really expect to collect."

THE GLOBAL VIEW

IS 'FREEDOM ACADEMY' ANSWER TO COMMUNISM?

NEW YORK, (NEA)—The influx of Russian, Cuban and Red Chinese agents into Latin America points up the urgency for the creation by the United States of the long-delayed Freedom Academy to train leaders in cold war techniques.

A bill (S.414) to establish an academy to teach Americans and anti-Communist foreigners how to counteract the Red's nonmilitary drive in sensitive areas was reintroduced in the Senate last January. It was sponsored by 13 Democratic and Republican senators and a group of private citizens, including the eminent American philosopher, Sidney Hook and Leo Cherne, president of the Research Institute of America.

Even Mexican intellectuals who once sneered at the "Yankee hysteria" about communism now realize that they are being swamped by Red propaganda, I learned during recent visits to Latin America.

"What we need badly to check Castro's growing influence are knowledgeable Americans who will help us combat Communist propaganda as the Peace Corps is fighting to stamp out illiteracy and disease," a Mexican leader told me.

The political warfare relentlessly waged by international communism in Latin America is as much a threat to United States security as Soviet missiles stockpiled in Cuba. For 40 years the Russians have operated supersecret schools for the training of Soviet and foreign agents in political work and underground operations in non-Communist countries. Most Soviet "diplomats" were trained in political warfare at Moscow's Sverdlov University before they were assigned to missions in Latin America. There are 150 such diplomats in Mexico alone.

they are waging the cold war in every possible field and a variety of propaganda lines.

Unfortunately, the technique employed by the United States to combat Red propaganda is not the wide range of the East-West political and cultural exchange program, but the substantially unchallenged areas of the cold war.

There is no doubt that dedicated United States patriots and employees of the United States Information Agency are doing their best to bring the message of the free world to the people of the world.

Traditional diplomacy is longer able—if it ever was—to cope with the upsurge of subversion in Latin America. This was made clear by General Robert F. Kennedy after his return from a tour. He said:

"In every country where Communist cadres are working their activities in student bodies, labor unions and intellectual circles. Against these there is no question to their facts; no organized and disciplined and obedient force to present the case. And so it is that a Communist well trained (Communist) can take over a meeting organization or even a movement."

Why, then, is the United States not doing more to bring its feet on the ground in Latin America? "The Communist will never risk its own neck any war except one in which it is certain to win," Leo Cherne recently told the Foreign Relations Commission. "But today it is engaged in a full scale cold war."

The Freedom Academy's view, should be the view of the Free World's leadership in the cold war.

Plane Fights Fire At Great Paradise

Three More Fires Rage in Province

A forest fire at Great Paradise, Placentia Bay one of four fires burning in Newfoundland Sunday evening, caused some concern to fire fighters in the area, a spokesman for the forest fire patrol at Mount Pearl said here late Sunday.

He said a Canso water bomber flew to the area and bombarded the flames with continuous water bombings until it was brought under control. Fire fighters from the Bonne Bay forest depot were reported to be fighting a fire about 6 miles from Bell Burns, near the Straits of Belle Isle, Sunday.

No particulars on the extent of the blaze or when it broke out were available last night. Brigg Bay, also on Newfoundland's northern tip, was the scene of a fire last evening. Men from Port Saunders fire patrol were fighting the blaze. The spokesman said that because of radio trouble in the area there were no details available.

Meanwhile a fire, presumed started by fishermen, was burning in the scrub timber in the area around Manuels and will be bombed this morning by the Canso water bomber. There has been 13 forest fires reported in Newfoundland in 1963, but Sunday when temperatures reached the 70 degree mark in most parts of the island, was the first time the forest fire hazard went to a high peak, the spokesman said.

The general public is urged to practice extreme caution while in the woods.

Portuguese Official Arrives Tomorrow

His Excellency, the Portuguese Ambassador to Canada, the Rt. Hon. Dr. Eduardo Brazao, G.C.V.O., and Senhora Brazao, will arrive in St. John's by train at 8 a.m. tomorrow. They will be greeted here by the Portuguese Consul, J. H. Moraes and Senhora Moraes.

The distinguished Portuguese official will spend four days in the capital city which will be crowded with visits on important local officials and public receptions. The first official visit by the diplomat will be calling on the premier of Newfoundland, Hon. J. R. Smallwood, and ministers of Provincial Affairs, Fisheries and Education, scheduled for 11 a.m. He will then visit the mayor and also the president of Memorial University.

At 1 p.m. he will attend a luncheon at the Government House. At 3 p.m. he will visit the House of Assembly in session. At 8 p.m. he will attend an informal dinner tendered by the Portuguese Consul and Senhora Moraes at their residence.

Dr. Brazao is a 56-year-old native of Lisbon. He became Portugal's Ambassador to Canada in December, 1962. He entered his country's diplomatic service in 1941 and since then has held the following posts: Secretary of Portugal's Embassy at the Vatican and in Madrid, Consul at Hong Kong, Chief of Protocol in Lisbon and Ambassador in Rome, where he remained for five years.

He is chiefly known in his country and in many other countries. Continued on Page Five

Announces 75,000 Contract to Construct Wharf at Lawn

Responsible Jean-Paul Desjardins, Minister of Public Works, announced May 24, that a $74,976.10 contract to the Ayalon Construction and Engineering Limited of St. John's for the construction of a wharf at Lawn.

Award Contract For Breakwater-Wharf

Responsible Jean-Paul Desjardins, Minister of Public Works, announced May 24, that a $88,890.40 contract to Ayalon Construction Limited of St. John's for the construction of a breakwater-wharf at Sibley's Cove.

The firm submitted the lowest bid of nine in response to advertising for public tenders which closed on April 24. The highest bid was $116,252.20. The work is scheduled for completion within nine months.

The new wharf will be L-shaped with creosoted cribwork and pile construction and an untreated timber deck. The approach section will be 136 feet long by 20 feet wide, while the head will be 80 feet, making a total length of 184 feet. The wharf will have a minimum of 16 feet of water at the head.

A freight shed, 34 feet long by 24 feet wide, will be constructed on the wharf under this contract. The new wharf will replace the existing one in order to maintain present facilities and provide for additional traffic.

The wharf is used by the C. N.R. coastal boats on the Port aux Basques to Argentina service. It also served a number of small coastal vessels handling freight for Lawn and other nearby settlements.

Lawn is an important fishing community in Placentia Bay, located on the Burin Peninsula between St. Lawrence and Lamaline.

Hotel Strikers Receive Support of Four Unions

GANDER, (Staff) — Some 150 men, representing four different Gander unions, combined with the 41 striking employees of the Gander Hotel here Sunday in a peaceful demonstration against the hotel's management.

The strike, which is in its fifth day, does not show any sign of a break as hotel president, William Anstey and James Mullett, international representative of the union here and a vice-president of the Newfoundland Federation of Labor, fail to show any sign of an agreement.

Mr. Mullett said he was "very happy" with the situation as the Gander people and the travelling public alike are respecting the union's picket line.

He said with the encouragement given the striking members by the people's respect for their picket line, they are more determined than ever.

An unofficial report says that in the past two days, nine of the 35 men, who were hired by Mr. Anstey to fill the striking workers' places had quit, because they were not aware of the strike situation when they were hired.

Mr. Mullett said that the union is willing to adhere to the Minister of Labor's request to open talks with the hotel company and settle the dispute.

He said the union had received a donation from another union towards the strike relief fund and that they were expecting another today. He did not comment in a dollar and cents value.

He regretted the inconvenience of the strike but urged people to respect his picket line.

Mr. Anstey does not look at the situation as a strike but as the men simply leaving their jobs.

He said the hotel has no contract with the employees.

Parish Boat Sinks After Hitting Rock

A delayed report from the settlement of Merasheen states that the parish boat there sank recently when it hit a rock in the bay.

The report stated that at the time Rev. Father Myron and another resident of Merasheen were on the boat at time neither was injured.

"When the boat hit the rock the engine was immediately reversed and the boat floated clear, however, part of the bow was stove-in and before the boat could be beached, rushing water stopped the engine and the two men had to head for shore in a life boat," the report stated.

The boat sank in 50 feet of water.

Rev. Fr. Lewis is the parish priest who normally uses the boat to visit many of the islands and settlements in Placentia Bay but on this trip the boat was carrying Fr. Myron, who is conducting a cent-a-meal campaign in the area.

No insurance was carried on the boat, which was valued at several thousand dollars.

The report stated that fishermen and other residents in the area attempted salvage operations but had no success.

First Sod Will Be Turned Today

Premier Joseph R. Smallwood and W. F. McLean, president of Canada Packers Limited, will be special guests at the sod-turning ceremonies here this morning for a new Canada Packers plant.

The new building, which will cost $750,000 will be erected by Allied Construction of St. John's, and will employ 130 persons when completed, late in November.

A spokesman for Canada Packers said one of the main reasons for the construction of the new building, which will measure 180 by 100 feet, is because of the increased demand for foods brought about by the advancement of travelling conditions on the island.

BEING DESTROYED—The old St. Mary's Church, a landmark on the South Side of St. John's, is now being destroyed as a way for the final phases of the harbor development. The 103 year old building was vacated in 1962 when a new church was opened on Craigmillar Avenue. The church is seen after 30 charges of dynamite had been set off in it.—(News Photo)

Turn Backward, O, Time!

On a date to be proclaimed after the amendment to the Standard Time Act has passed into law, this province will be officially on Atlantic Time. Newfoundland clocks will be synchronized with those of the Maritime Provinces and will be four hours behind Greenwich Mean Time.

The tides scorned Canute's command. The sun ignored Joshua. But time is more compliant. It will lend itself pliantly to the incongruity of a backward step by Newfoundland's most forward-looking Premier. Since he also believes in preserving our unique characteristics, he must have a very good reason for wanting to abolish one of them. We pride ourselves on being different even if that should make things awkward for ourselves and others. And our special time zone is a tradition in that order.

It had its origin in 1884 when by international agreement the world was divided into twenty-four zones, each of 15 degrees of longitude and differing by one hour from its nearest neighbours. The system was geared to the Royal Observatory at Greenwich. But St. John's, in which was then concentrated most of Newfoundland's population and commerce, was in the 52nd meridian. A reasonably precise measurement put the Avalon Peninsula 3 1/2 hours behind Greenwich and that was the basis of our decision on Newfoundland Standard Time. It is a distinction shared, we believe, only with British Guiana.

The West Coast is more properly in the Atlantic zone and Western Labrador should with equal propriety be in the Eastern Standard Time Zone. But we cannot have three different zones in the province. That suggests the amendment is a compromise. Stephenville and Goose Bay are already on Atlantic Time in defiance of the Newfoundland Act.

But nothing is ever as simple as it seems. The adjustment will be painless in all respects but one. But this happens to be important. For all of us the days will be shorter.

Avalon has the amount of daylight to which it is entitled by scientific measurement. The western section of the province has been enjoying the permanent equivalent of a daylight saving bonus of a half-hour. Darkness will descend on all of us the year round a half-hour earlier than it does now. We shall even be robbed of thirty minutes of the hour we take from the sun in summer. The only remedy for that would be to start and end the working day a half-hour earlier.

It won't, of course, make any difference to those such as fishermen and farmers who ignore the clock and work from dawn to dusk. But the rest of us who are governed by the clock will have to cope with darkness all the year round a half-hour earlier. The reverse of daylight savings will occur for six months of each year. In fact, the chief beneficiaries will be those who sell us artificial light.

Is it worth it? Should a progressive government proclaim: "Backward, turn backward, O Time, in thy flight?" Will it gain more from the change than most of us will forfeit through a nightfall that is advanced by thirty minutes every day of the year? And what do the end of our opportunities to start the new year in Canada, announce the nation's first baby of the year, and give Canadians the news that Newfoundland has begun the new Liberal resurgence?

With all this in mind is there cause to believe that any benefits from the change can possibly exceed the losses that must be suffered when we surrender the privilege of enjoying our own special brand of time confusion and the blessing of the delayed sunset that it confers upon us. The shade of John Anderson would unquestionable respond with an emphatic and explosive "no."

No Confidence Motions

There is a tendency for the importance of no-confidence motions in parliament to be exaggerated. For example, the fact that the Liberals survived the NDP motion was related with almost breathless excitement although it was never seriously expected that it would result in a defeat of the government. That defeat, indeed, is not even wanted by the opposition. Nobody wishes to have another election if it can be possibly avoided for the next few years. But the no-confidence motions must be put for two special reasons. One is to help assess the alignments that can occur in a parliament in which the government party is short of an overall majority. The other is that the motions permit a debate within a debate in which special attention may be given to specific controversial issues. New issues could emerge at any time of a kind that could give a greater consequence to a no-confidence motion but short of something on which feeling is so strong that it could overrule the desire to defer an election, the Liberals are likely to have ample opportunity to put forward their legislative programme and get it approved by parliament.

Tribute To A Sportsman

From a tremendous welcome on the west coast and in his native central Newfoundland, young Alex Faulkner has come to St. John's to receive a further accolade from the people of the capital. There may be some who may ask what the fuss is all about. There may be others who are joining in the tribute because of the reflected glory they feel in the admission of a young native son into the elite assembly of the National Hockey League. But that alone would not necessarily justify the enthusiasm of this reception. What matters most is less what Faulkner achieved than how he did it and what he did when he had made the grade. There are great athletes who

Interpreting THE NEWS

By CARMAN CUMMING
Canadian Press Staff Writer
How serious is the United Nations' financial crisis?
Secretary-General U Thant calls it "possibly the most vital" problem before the UN.

He cites figures to show that, if the present sickness continues its course with no strong medicine prescribed, the UN will reach a point where it just won't have money to pay its bills. Some UN people say the situation is not as black as it's often painted. Others say it's very black indeed, but they shy away from such words as "bankruptcy" pointing out that an international organization with the unique character of the UN just doesn't operate the way a regular business does.

And most agree that the problem is not really money, but politics. The question is not whether members can come up with the cash but whether, if they're not prepared to do so, it's worth keeping the UN structure in operation.

WON'T PAY UP
There is some polite, well-guarded irritation directed towards a few countries that pressed for the immediate independence of The Congo, voted to send a UN force to clean up the resulting mess and now find excuses when the time comes to pick it up.

The UN has been useful for these countries, a Western source comments. It has also been useful for the Soviet bloc nations—although they might not admit it.

Yet as of May 13 a total of 53 UN members owed $27,000,000 to the special account for the UN Emergency Force in the Middle East and 64 members owed $72,000,000 to The Congo "ad hoc" account.

And this despite the fact that no assessments have been levied for the two forces since the middle of last year, the cost being covered by sale of UN bonds and by special U.S. contributions.

SHOULD ACT FAST
Many delegations feel that with the situation in The Congo and Middle East quiet at present the lull should be utilized to get agreement on a formula for financing peace-keeping forces that could come into play when the next crisis blows up.

Working the other way is the inevitable tendency to put off a solution until the need is desperate.

Americans feel there also is a tendency among some countries to think that the richer nations, chiefly the U.S., will always come through if things get really bad.

The immediate amount of money is only $42,500,000—enough to keep forces in the Middle East and Congo until the end of the year. The U.S. national budget is more than 2,000 times as much.

But the Americans, who carried nearly half the cost when the going was toughest in The Congo, have been taking a harder line now that the worst is over. They have refused to pay any more voluntary contributions unless delinquent nations show readiness to pay.

Since the start of The Congo operation in the summer of 1960 the U.S. has contributed $73,565,272 to the force in regular assessments plus extra voluntary contributions of $30,606,396.

KENNEDY IMPRESSES CED WITH HIS ECONOMIC POLICIES

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, (NEA) — President Kennedy's speech in defence of his tax, spending, budget, balance of payments and fiscal policy in general made a profound impression on the 200 members of the Committee for Economic Development at their annual trustees meeting in Washington.

For good reason. Some of the ideas he espoused were theirs and he praised them. Whether or not the CED members agreed with the way the President interpreted the ideas, many came out of the meeting admitting that he had a remarkable grasp of facts and figures and could argue persuasively for his ideas.

The cliché is, of course, that the President is antibusiness. And it is inconceivable that the American Iron and Steel Institute, which will present the first Benjamin F. Fairless memorial gold medal to ex-President Eisenhower in late May, will ever award it to Kennedy.

Labor leaders and the ultraliberals, on the other hand, argue that Kennedy is far too probusiness—particularly on tax policies.

THE PRESIDENT'S REAL IDEAS on business stuck out all through the CED speech. He had praise for the organization's recognition that "federal monetary and fiscal policies can and must supplement the decisions of the market place in determining the course of the economy—that interest rates must be adjusted up or down, budgets into deficits and surplus, to fit the needs of the time."

Kennedy made this speech before the CED for two reasons. One was because they asked him. The other was because they knew he could get a fair hearing.

In its two decades of public service, CED has made an outstanding contribution to economic sophistication in the United States. It has issued more than 60 research studies and reports on every controversial economic policy question confronting postwar America.

It began operations in 1943 when there was great fear of postwar depression and high unemployment. Under its first chairman, Paul Hoffman, CED argued rightly, that instead of a recession, the pent-up demand for goods would create a business boom.

Reorganizing that the great depression of the 1930s was a confession of failure to provide a livelihood for millions of Americans, CED set out to prove that business must provide the leadership to preserve free enterprise.

But along with this, CED also recognized that government has a responsibility in its tax, spending, deficit and other fiscal policies to influence favourably all business, price and employment levels.

FROM THIS START CED went on to support passage of the Full Employment Act of 1946 as a necessary national economic goal.

The next step CED successfully advocated was removal of wartime support on government securities by the Federal Reserve, since this shackled monetary action and induced inflation.

A third major contribution was CED's "stabilizing budget policy" concept. While it emphasized the desirability of balanced budgets under relatively full employment, it left room for a change in this standard in times of high unemployment and business recession. Kennedy fiscal policies are drawn from this.

From then on—through the 1957 turning point in U.S. economic history and continuing even now—CED has produced careful analyses of current economic problems, and has suggested solutions.

CEd's MOST CONSTRUCTIVE achievement probably will come from its Commission on Money and Credit, established in 1958 with a Ford Foundation grant. One volume of its report was published in 1961 and has been extensively used by administration economists and Congress. Other volumes are in preparation.

A principal goal of CED now is furtherance of economic education in America. The theory is that if free enterprise and individual liberty are to survive, this will come only through greater understanding of what the system is and how it works.

THE ONLY WAY

Cleveland Plain Dealer
We fear that the attempt of an American Legion Post in Denver to minimize or escape the effects of a possible enemy attack by establishing a headquarters in a hotel room 170 miles away, will solve very little, even though, according to the Associated Press, the room will contain duplicate records, food and drugs.

If an attack comes it will come without much warning, and the drugs in the hotel room 170 miles distant wouldn't be of much use, even if they were still intact which is highly doubtful. And if no one were still around to read the duplicate records, what useful purpose would they serve?

The only wise way to survive an atomic attack is to have no atomic attack, and every energy should be bent in this direction.

HAPPINESS HAS TO BE WON

What is the worst thing in the world that one can teach a child?

The worst thing one can teach a child is that the child has a right to get that life will be easy on him. If he gets this idea into his mind early enough, he will make himself the victim of all those who have to be associated with him in the decades to follow. If his whole life is based about the conviction that the past must always be kept smooth behind his feet, he will bedevil wife and children to those in effect.

Life is a struggle, and let us not delude ourselves with any false theories to the contrary. Above all, let us ruin the lives of children by inculcating them with the idea that their own happiness is their right. The declaration of Independence put the matter cogently when it said that among the unalienable rights are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. The Declaration does not guarantee happiness; it guarantees men the right to happiness, and this is quite a different matter.

Nobody can give us happiness; we have to go through life and achieve it.

And above everything else, let us tell the kids that life will be a struggle for them. Maybe it will be with plenty of thorns left on the vine.

Editor Daily News.

Dear Sir,—Please allow me to express your valuable columns to interest views on a matter of interest to Newfoundlanders who are proud of island home.

An editorialist in the May 1963 issue of The Financial Post, Mr. J. B. Geachy by name, commenting on the need for arousing public interest in support in the provinces in Canada Centennial, urges the provinces help make the event a success by jettisoning a note of "paganistic hoopla" that will attract tourists all over the world. Mr. Geachy says that the provinces should begin to work on their special projects with the help of the National Centennial Administration, since "with only 10 years to go, plans for the great glorious occasion should be made faster than they seem to be moving present." Canadians, he says, are concerned about their past and human society, including the Bay of Islands.

Mr. Geachy dismisses Newfoundland's probable interest in the past with a quip. The events that led up to Confederation "might as well have happened in South Vietnam at a time, Miss Garland, that a half in public opinion that her daughter better off if she spent her time not so glaring. It annoys me to see our past and honourable traditions set aside so lightly and to note that Newfoundland still seem to be considered as "second class citizens" by the rest of Canada even in connection with such an event as Canada's 100th birthday.

I would like to suggest that Newfoundland's preparations for the Centennial observances be entrusted to someone capable of correcting these misconceptions and giving the province her rightful share of the limelight as the tourist business in 1967.

Mr. Don Jamieson could be persuaded to step in and take over Newfoundland's preparations for this important event. I am sure he is one Newfoundland who has the interest and knowledge and the promotional flair to make the event a real success for island and to help attract visitors to our shores by throwing light on a long and interesting past.

The powers that be should make that Newfoundland is not left out of the cold when all Canada joins in great nationwide celebration.

Dodgers Gain On Giants

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Baltimore Orioles boosted their winning streak to eight and extended their American League lead over New York Yankees to 2 1/2 games Sunday with a doubleheader triumph over Cleveland Indians, 10-6 and 6-1.

In the National League, Los Angeles Dodgers narrowed San Francisco's first place lead to two games with a 10-inning 4-3 victory over the Giants.

A couple of streaks were snapped in the doubleheader split between Washington and New York. After the Yankees had won the opener 7-1 the Senators took the second game 7-6 to end their eight-game losing streak and the Yankees' six-game winning skid.

Minnesota kept its winning streak alive by defeating Chicago White Sox 5-2 for its seventh straight. The Angels of Los Angeles defeated Kansas City 6-4 while Boston gained a split with Detroit, winning the second game 6-5 after the Tigers had run off with the opener 12-3.

NETS END STREAK
Still another string was broken when New York Mets nipped St. Louis 3-2 in 11 innings after the Cards had handed them their seventh straight loss in the opener, 7-4.

Philadelphia captured its first doubleheader in Cincinnati in 13 years, 10-4 and 3-0. Pittsburgh edged Milwaukee 5-2 in 11 innings and the Chicago Cubs knocked off Houston 5-1.

Late inning scoring bursts featured the Orioles victories. They rallied for three runs in the seventh of the opener and overcame a 6-4 Cleveland lead. Jim Gentile's two-run single was the key blow. John Powell's run-scoring single and Jackie Brandt's triple highlighted the Orioles' three-run rally in the eighth inning that snapped a 1-1 tie in the nightcap.

Marv Breeding cracked three singles and drove in two runs to help Washington rookie pitcher Jim Duckworth gain his first major league victory. Home runs by Mickey Mantle No. 10 and Elston Howard No. 7 helped Jim Bouton register his sixth Yankee victory in the first game.

Eight-inning home runs by Eddie Bressoud and Gary Geiger snapped a 3-3 tie for Boston in the nightcap after the Tigers had collected 14 hits in the opener, including home runs by Al Kaline and Dick McAuliffe.

HELPED BY HOMERS
Home runs also helped Jim Perry of the Twins gain his third victory. They were supplied by Harmon Killebrew, Zoilo Versalles and Earl Vatney against White Sox loser John Buzhardt.

Al Moran's bases-loaded single in the sixth climaxed a four-run rally that brought the Angels their second straight triumph over the Athletics.

Tommy Davis' single scored Jim Gilliam with the Dodgers' winning run in the 10th. Gilliam had reached second on the third throwing error of the game by Giant shortstop Jose Palau.

Another throwing error, by St. Louis pitcher Bob Gibson, on Chico Fernandez' sacrifice bunt, permitted Charlie Neal to score from second with the winning run in the 11th inning of the nightcap. Neal had reached base when left fielder Duke Carmel dropped his first.

HITS GRAND SLAM HOMER
Roy Sievers hit a grand slam homer as a pinch hitter in the opener and rookie Ray Culp pitched a three-hitter in the nightcap in the Phillies' sweep over the Reds.

Rookie Bob Bailey's three-run homer in the 11th snapped a 2-2 tie with Milwaukee and gave Pittsburgh's Al McBean his fifth victory in six decisions.

Home runs by Ron Santo and Ken Hubbs helped the Cubs' Bob Buhl register his third victory, a nine-hitter against the Colts.

straight defeat for Casey Stengel's New Yorkers.

GETS FOUR SINGLES
Four successive singles by Daryl Spencer helped Cincinnati Reds beat Philadelphia Phillies 5-2 behind Joe Nuxhall. Joe Torre's homer and Bob Shaw's four-hit pitching gave Milwaukee Braves a 1-0 verdict over Pittsburgh Pirates. Larry Jackson won his sixth for Chicago Cubs with a five-hitter against Houston Colts, 1-1, beating Dick Farrell.

Baltimore capitalized on three errors by Cleveland Indians and won its sixth straight 6-4 with a three-run uprising in the ninth. The Orioles tied the score in the eighth on an odd play after Luis Aparicio beat out an infield hit. First baseman Fred Whitfield, thinking Aparicio had been called out, threw the ball around the infield and threw past the catcher. Aparicio moved to second and scored on Jerry Adair's double.

The Yankees whipped Washington Senators 5-1 with Ralph Terry besting Tom Cheney. Terry had a three-hitter for seven innings but weakened and lost his shutout in the ninth. It was the Yanks' fifth straight victory. The Senators, winless in three starts under manager Gil Hodges, have dropped seven in a row.

Camilo Pascual threw a two-hitter at Chicago while Minnesota Twins pounded out a 6-0 victory over the White Sox. Until the ninth, the only Chicago hit was a wind-blown double by Pete Ward that Wally Post got his glove on against the fence but couldn't hold. Floyd Robinson singled in the ninth.

DETROIT SNAPS STREAK
Detroit Tigers snapped a four-game losing streak and knocked off Boston Red Sox 5-2. Dick McAuliffe contributed three singles and Bill Paul won his second game with help from Terry Fox.

Billy O'Dell, the Giants' unbeaten left-hander, won his seventh game without a loss although Don Larsen replaced him in the eighth inning. It was the second straight for the Giants over the Dodgers.

Homers by Orlando Cepeda and Willie McCovey off Johnny Podres enabled the Giants to overcome an early 2-0 Dodger lead.

In the only night game on the schedule, Kansas City Athletics pushed across five runs in the first inning before making an out and clouted Los Angeles Angels 9-2. Ed Rakow now 5-2, was the winning pitcher and Mel Nelson took the loss.

Records For Pole Vault And Two Mile

MODESTO, Calif. (AP)—University of Washington sophomore Brian Sternberg pole vaulted 16 feet seven inches Saturday night in one of two world record-breaking performances at the California relays.

Earlier this year Sternberg cleared 16 feet five inches to become the world's highest vaulter, but John P. Northeast Louisiana State raised the bar.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Faulkner will be able to enjoy free bowling for the rest of their lives. The Detroit Red Wing center and his new bride, Doris, will be presented with life time passes to the new Park Lanes at Mount Pearl during the week.

Ken Meeker, Park Lanes manager, told the DAILY NEWS last night that "like the rest of Newfoundland, Park Lanes are proud of the performance of Alex Faulkner in his rookie NHL season and we would like to make this little token of our appreciation."

Life Time Pass For Faulkner

The best motion camera outfit that can be obtained in Newfoundland, will be presented to Alex Faulkner today. The set will be the gift from the St. John's area "gift fund."

Alex Will Receive Camera Set

Thanks to a contribution from the Provincial Government, from the co-sponsors of the welcome celebrations in this section of the island, the DAILY NEWS and CJOJ, and the response of city fans and firms the gift was obtained on Saturday.

The set will contain the latest Kodak movie camera, projector, screen, lights and all its accessories and was provided at a special price by Tooton's, Kodak dealers in Newfoundland.

Second Park Lane 900 Score

Bud Williams is the proud owner of the second 900 three frames score for the new Park Lanes in Mount Pearl. Bernice Cook had the first three frames over 900 at the recent addition to the city's bowling facilities and last night Bud joined her.

It was his first 900 in his bowling career and he opened with an even 300, added 283 in the second frame and finished up with 329 for a fine 912 total.

Brazil Is Title Team

RIO DE JANEIRO AP—Brazil won its second straight world basketball championship Saturday night with an 85-81 victory over the United States.

The host country finished the seven-team round robin with a perfect 8-0 record.

The Americans, who never have won this title, finished fourth with a 3-3 record. Yugoslavia trimmed the Russians 89-87 in the first game Saturday to take second place with a 5-1 mark, losing only to Brazil. Russia was third at 4-2.

The Lethbridge, Alta., Nationals, representing Canada in the world competition, were eliminated in the preliminaries.

Two Records For All-Star Bowling

Two records were established on Dominion Ale TV All-Star Bowling on Saturday. Jackie Henderson upset Lillian Vatcher in the ladies' section to join husband Ches as a winner on the show for the first husband and wife winning combination.

Over in the men's division Gus Wadden stopped Leo Gosse to join brother Joe as a victor and this was the first time that two brothers have been winners in the three year history of the show.

Both games were close despite the fact that no great scores were registered. Jackie Henderson took a 34 pin decision over Mrs. Vatcher while Gus Wadden won by 30 pins over Gosse.

Mrs. Henderson won the first frame from Mrs. Vatcher 172-153 but Mrs. Vatcher coped the middle frame 186-151 to hold a 16 pin lead going into the last frame. Mrs. Henderson's 240 compared to a 198 by Mrs. Vatcher decided the match.

Wadden fell behind by 19 pins in the first frame with Gosse as the scores were 225-206, but in the second frame Wadden posted a 211 while Gosse hit 186 to have Wadden with a six pin lead going into the final frame. Wadden's 279 against a 255 by Gosse settled the issue in the last frame.

Patricians are the club champions of the show for the first time. They follow Holy Cross and Feildians as the title holders. The Irish ran up 825 points over the year and walked away from the other four clubs. Feildians finished second with 420 while Guards had 340 and Holy Cross gained 145 and St. Bon's got 25.

Next Saturday the elimination roll-off for the single championships of the show will be held with the 44 male and female keglers who have appeared on the show this season competing for the right to enter the finals.

Belinsky Sent Down

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Left hander Bo Belinsky, who achieved overnight fame by pitching a no-hitter a year ago this month, was shipped to the minor leagues Saturday night by Los Angeles Angels of the American League.

Belinsky and Angel outfielder Ken Hunt were optioned to Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League.

Since he pitched his no-hitter against Baltimore Belinsky has frequently been in trouble with the Angels on two counts—his pitching and his nocturnal adventures.

WON ONLY ONE
This season, he had won only one game and lost seven. Belinsky, 26, was smiling when he emerged from manager Bill Rigney's office after getting the bad news. He said he had no comment.

Rigney said: "The reason this is going down is that we want him to go out and play, just play. As soon as this left hander looks as though he can pitch the way we think he can, he'll be back."

SPORTS BRIEFS

HILL WINS RACE
MONTE CARLO AP—Graham Hill, the defending champion from Britain, opened the 1963 world auto driving championship competition Sunday with a rousing victory in the 100-lap Grand Prix de Monaco through the serpentine streets of this Riviera resort.

The Briton, behind the wheel of a BRM, was followed across the finish line by BRM teammate Richie Ginther of Granada Hills, Calif., and Bruce McLaren of New Zealand in a Cooper. Hill's time was a course record two hours, 41 minutes, 40.70 seconds, an average of 72.40 miles an hour. Each lap was 1.95 miles.

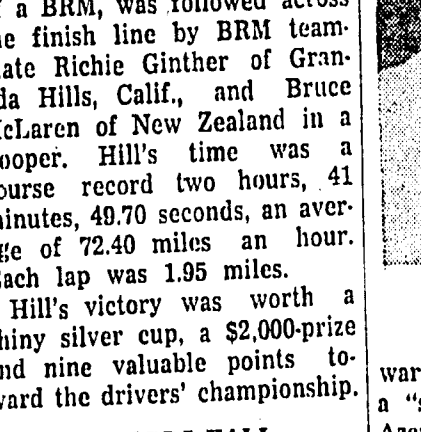

Hill's victory was worth a shiny silver cup, a $2,000-prize and nine valuable points toward the drivers' championship.

RECORDS FALL
ANCASTER, Ont. (CP)—Toronto runners Bruce Kidd and Bill Crothers made another assault on the Canadian record books Saturday, shattering existing marks in the 3,000-metre and 1,000-metre events at the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Association's meet here near Hamilton.

Kidd ran the 3,000 in 8:10.3, shearing 14.9 seconds off the former record. Crothers chopped 2.7 second off the Canadian open 1,000-metre mark with 2:29.0.

SMASHES RECORD
TEMPE, Ariz. (AP)—New Mexico University's Adolph Plummer smashed the existing world record in the 440-yard dash Saturday night in the finals of the Western Athletic Conference track and field championships with a clocking of 44.9 seconds. He beat Arizona State University's Ullis Williams. The existing record of 45.7 was set in 1958 by Ohio State's Glenn Davis.

HOWSER TRADED
CLEVELAND AP—Cleveland Indians acquired Dick Howser, speedy Kansas City infielder, and catcher Joe Azcue in a trade with Kansas City Athletics Saturday. The Indians gave up catcher Howard Doc Edwards and what they said was a "substantial" sum of money. Azcue, 23, is with Portland in the Pacific Coast League.

The Indians sent rookie shortstop Tony Martinez on 24-hour recall to Jacksonville Suns of the International League to make room for the new players.

RECORD IN RELAY
The second world record to fall was in the two-mile relay when the Oregon State quartet ran the distance in seven minutes, 18.9 seconds during a meet that also saw:

1. New Zealand's Peter Snell rout Jim Beatty of the U.S. in their race as the world record holder ran the third fastest time ever posted—3:54.9—with three other runners also below four minutes.

There was also some news from the world record books when one standard was slightly lower than the other. But the officials said the change nevertheless will be reflected for world record considerations.

Oregon State quartet of millers bettered the world record of 7:19.4 set by a U.S. team in 1960. Running in for the Beavers were Dan derwood 1:50.2, Jerry Hoffmann 1:52.0, Norm Hoffmann and Morgan Groth 1:54.4.

BEATS RUSS MARK
Shinnick's 27.4 was better than the world record of 27.5 set by Igor Ter-Ovanesyan of the U.S.S.R.

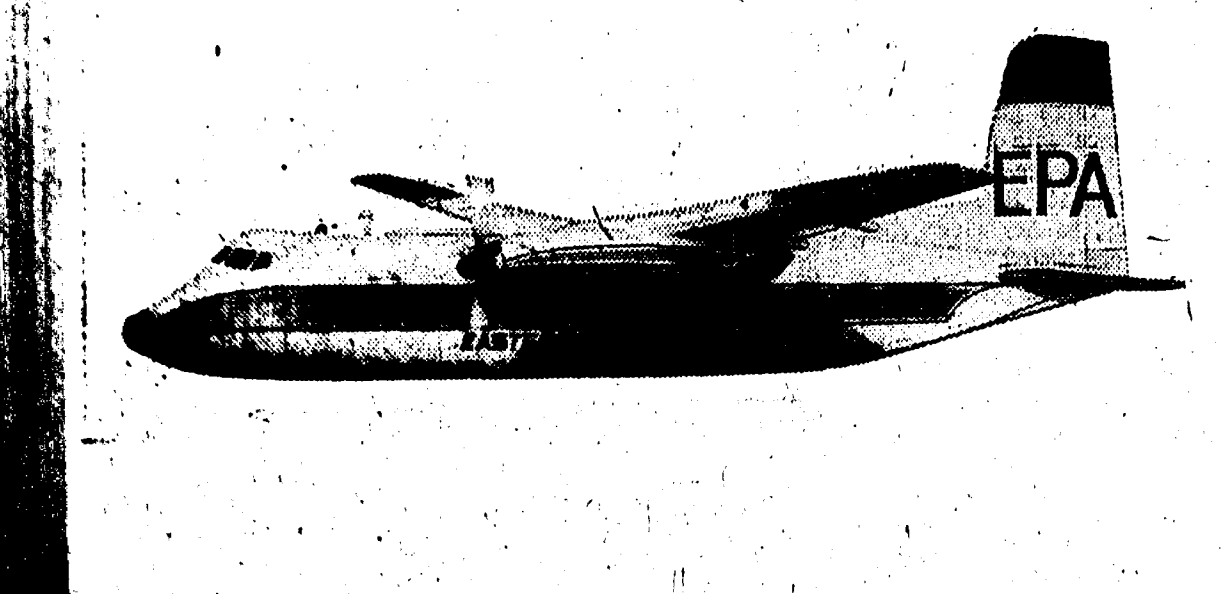

The best previous record in the 20-year-old Shinnick's 27.4 came on his second try when he went 26.10 on his first try but fouled. He had nearly record-bettering mark classed as unofficial because no one was tending the wind gauge.

The gauge had shown a velocity less than the allowable maximum of 4.47 miles an hour shortly before Shinnick made his jump.

WELL ROLLED BUD... The Lethbridge, Alta., Nationals, representing Canada in the world competition, were eliminated in the preliminaries.

EAST COAST WELCOME FOR ALEX

Gala Celebrations For Detroit's Rookie Center

Conception Bay And St. John's Have Plans For Faulkner

A "welcome mat" will be out for Alex Faulkner today. The Detroit Red Wing star and Newfoundlander to make the Hockey League will be the center of attraction for gala celebrations planned by Conception Bay and St. John's.

Preparations for the week will be climaxed with presentations: two giant parades, a private dinner and a "welcome Alex" dance.

Newfoundland paid it's welcome to Alex and his new bride, on Wednesday and Thursday with a motorcade and banquet. The East Coast joins in the welcome.

AT THINGS

Presentations at the S. W. Memorial Stadium in Harlow will start things off at 7 p.m. Alex Moores will be the guest of honor for the affair with Frank Moore making presentations to the directors and the people of Conception Bay.

Present for the occasion will be Ross Sheppard, MAHA for Harlow; George Clarke, MHA for Carbonear; Bill Saunders, MHA for Bay de Verde; Eric Moore, MHA and Mayor of Port de Spain; Ross Sheppard, Mayor of Conception Bay; and Jose Pike, Mayor of Carbonear.

At 2:30 p.m. a motorcade will start at the S. W. Moores and will travel to Carbonear before turning for the trip around Conception Bay to St. John's motorcade at the stadium on the Trans-Canada Highway.

SET UP

St. John's motorcade will start at this point with the time set for 4:30 p.m. All cars are requested to take up the motorcade and are asked to be in position by 4:15 p.m. The parade of the welcome is open to the public and car owners in St. John's area may join with the rest of the Province in welcoming our first NHLer by taking part in the motorcade.

Para Nova Motors have provided three convertibles to carry the official party. A 1963 Buick will be followed by two 1963 Pontiacs will lead the motorcade. The parade will be under the joint supervision of the RCMP and the Local Highway Patrol, with the Division and Patrol Division of the Mounties co-operating. The overpass the motor-cade will proceed out the Trans-Canada Highways and up Freshwater Road to Adams Avenue. It will continue down Adams Avenue and Prince of Wales Street to swing west on LeMarchant Road and then down Hamilton Avenue to Patrick Street.

The route continues down Patrick Street to Water Street and then East on Water to Prescott Street. After swinging up Prescott Street to Duckworth Street it will proceed East to Cavendish Square and down King's Bridge Road to the St. John's Memorial Stadium.

WEATHER

If the weather is suitable the ceremonies at the Stadium will be held on the parking lot. A suitable stand and outdoor PA system have been arranged through Stadium manager Herb Dewling. If the weather is poor the ceremonies are slated for inside the Stadium.

Chairman for the event will be Howie Mecker with Premier J. R. Smallwood and Mayor Mews scheduled to speak with the Premier also making a presentation to Alex on behalf of the Government and Andy Meeker and Dick Murphy making other presentations.

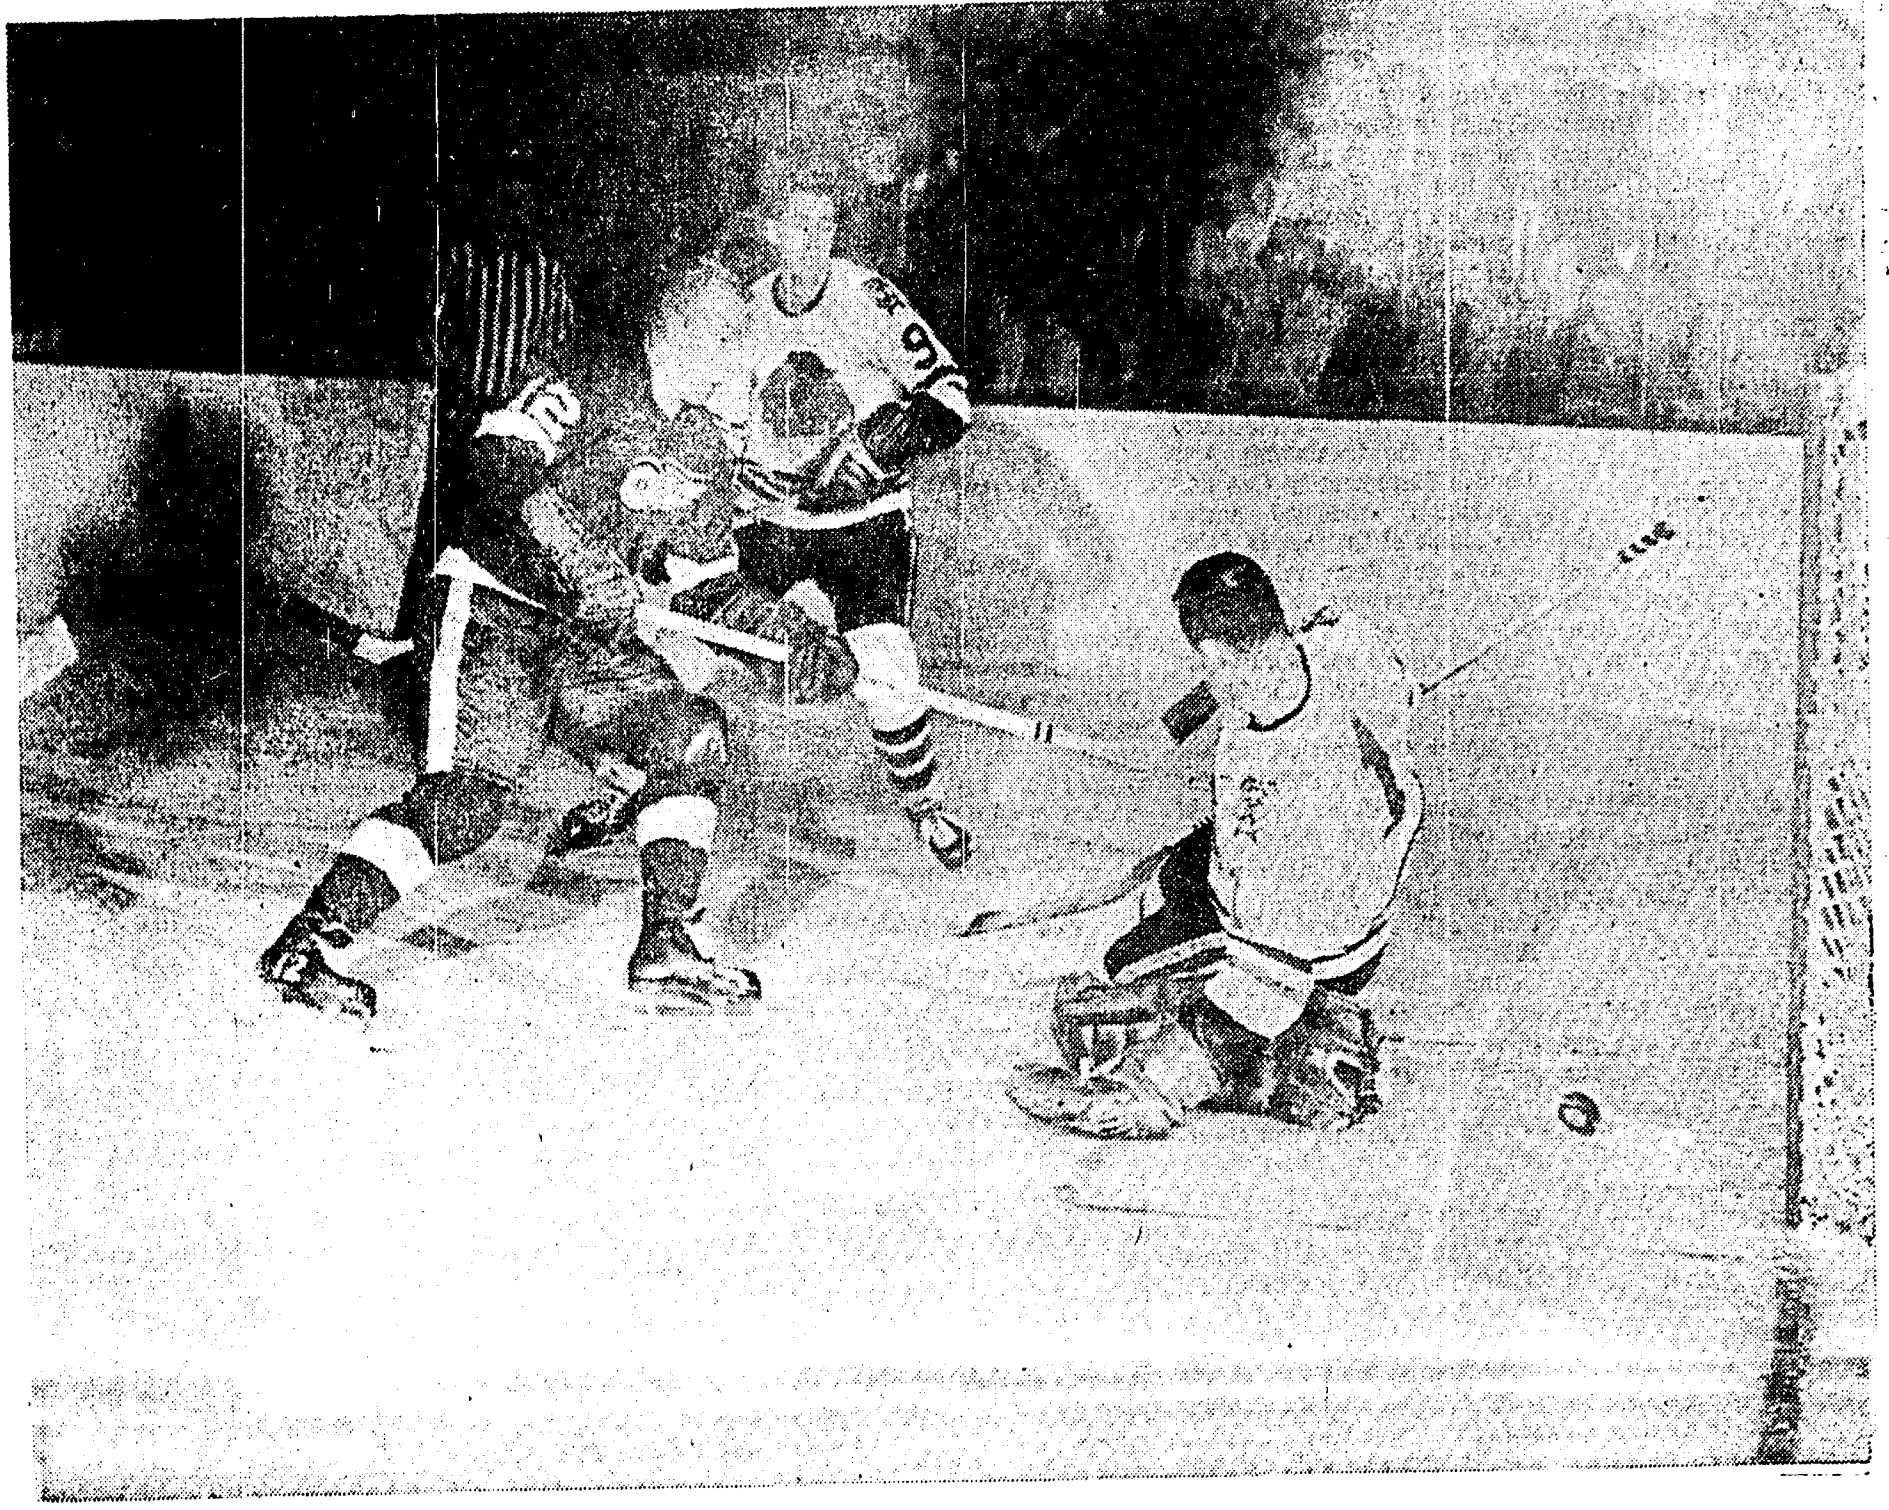

Both Alex's wife and mother will receive bouquets from Eleanor Pope as J. J. Neville, the Florist, has donated the flowers for the occasion.

Also present for the Stadium ceremonies will be Deputy Mayor Bill Adams and Councillors Alex Henley and Walter Carter as well as Referee-in-chief John Doyle, representing the NAHA; Jim Vini-combe of the City Hockey League; Gordon Duff of the St. John's Referee's Association; Ron Hayward of the Mercantile Hockey League and John Walsh of the Civil Service Hockey League.

DANCE

A dance will follow at night with the Old Mill being donated for the event through the co-operation of Club manager Gerry Stevens while the Chris Andrews' Orchestra has donated it's services to provide the music. St. John's sports figure, Frank "Toe" Byrne, will mcee the dance.

Some tickets for the dance are still available to the general public and they may be obtained at the reception desks of either the DAILY NEWS or CJON. The two City news media are co-sponsoring the homecoming welcome.

ALEX FAULKNER SCORES A STANLEY CUP SEMI-FINALS WINNING GOAL AGAINST GLEN HALL ON CHICAGO BLACK HAWKS.

Old Rivals Open Basketball Finals

Holy Cross And St. Bon's Clash

The stretch of the 1963 basketball league starts with the Holy Cross gymnasium as the rivals St. Bon's and Holy Cross meet in the three games finals.

Two squads met in the final year with St. Bon's taking the best of three in a straight for the Holy Trophy.

The thrilling semi-finals in which St. Bon's defeated Holy Cross, the finals are expected to be a real cliff hanger.

The game is scheduled for Thursday night. All tickets at 8 o'clock.

Barrett returned to the Blue-golds lineup for the last game of the schedule and proved to be their big weapon in the semi-finals. He is expected to play the same role in the finals but he is against a strong Holy Cross team and will need strong backing from guards Bob Healey and Frank Fardy and forwards Tom Murphy and Jack Walsh.

Cee Pierson will be the key figure in the Holy Cross lineup. He has been their leader all season and is expected to be their spark plug in the finals. Two hot scoring forwards and two speedy guards make up the remainder of the Crusaders first string. Robin Short, always dangerous around the baskets, and George Sorensen, a good left handed shooter, will help Pierson with the scoring.

The strongest part of the Red and Gold squad is their two guards. Barry Maunder and Ron Baird, two speedy and high scoring guards will control the play. These two lads have set the pace of the Crusaders all season and had a good hand in the scoring.

This, no doubt, will be one of the most thrilling basketball playoffs in St. John's.

CREDIT DESERVED WHERE GAINED

By OSWALD JACOBY

South played dummy's four of clubs on West's deuce. East won the trick with the ace and returned the eight of diamonds. South played low and West's jack held the trick. A club lead put South in dummy and he promptly led the queen of trumps. East covered with the king and South cashed his ace and jack. Then he led the jack of spades to East's queen. East returned the five of diamonds and South went right up with the ace. By this time South was quite sure that he had counted the hand perfectly. He assumed West had opened a fourth best club and that East's diamond plays had indicated a doubleton. Each opponent had shown up with two trumps so South was convinced that West had started with two spades and East with four. Therefore South led a spade to dummy's ace and returned the ten. East ducked quickly, but South was sure of his count and promptly discarded the queen of diamonds on the ten of spades, "Nice play," said North. "Right," said West. "My partner deserves half the credit. If he had played the jack of clubs at trick one South would not have had enough entries to dummy to make the play." East's error did not detract from South's fine performance. He was given a chance and he made the most of it.

S. S. Holds Anniversary

CARBONAR, May 20—The South Side United Church Sunday School held its annual anniversary yesterday afternoon, with a very large congregation in attendance. Mr. George Murray, the superintendent led the service and Rev. Mr. Bradbury was in attendance.

The programme opened with the singing of hymn number 597 "Come Children Join to Sing", followed by scripture reading, Mary 10, 13-24, and hymn number 612 "Gentle Jesus Meek and Mild." Then came the children's parts which consisted of the following: Exercises: "The Welcome Mat," "A Verse for Beginners," "God is Love," "Children," "Three Answers," "Count on Me," "Candle Holders," "He Loves Us," "The Two of Us," "Why I Like Children's Day," "Children's Day," "Little Minute Men," "Memories of Jesus," Choruses: "Whispering So Softly," "Children's Day Song," "Jesus Loves The Little Ones," "I Would Be A Little Star," "I've Two Little Hands," Recitations: "A Holy Place," by Gloria Pike; "The Reason Why," by Vickie Oates; "The Lesson" by Mary Butt; "I Wish I were a Fisherman" by Clarence James; "A Suggestion" by Dianne Murray; "Who Knows" by George Butt; "Jesus Loves" by Joanne Cornish; "Good Bye" by Billie Swain. Duet: "Every Single Day" The offering and Hymn No. 38 "When His Salvation Brings" and 617 "Lord, this day Thy children meet" concluded the programs. It was a very interesting program and well presented and much praise is due Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Robert Forward and Miss Reynolds who spent many hours in training the children.

Blood Bank

CARBONAR, May 20—One hundred and eight-five donors turned up at the Blood Bank held in the Hospital here on Friday last and as a result one hundred and seventy-five bottles of the life-saving liquid were accounted for, the other 113 donors were "rejects". While this was not as many as was hoped for, yet it is considered to be well worth the effort.

Magistrate's Court

A resident of Spaniard's Bay charged with drunk driving was brought before Magistrate Trickett at Harbor Grace on Monday. This charge was reduced to that of impaired driving and the man was fined $50.00 or 14 days in jail. His drivers licence was suspended for one month.

Carbonar Newsy Briefs

Philip LeFevre, a student at Memorial University, has secured work for the summer months with Udells.

Mr. Willis Spurrell and family will be taking up residence in the dwelling purchased by Saunders, Howell & Co., from the estate of Miss Molly Howell and which was lately occupied by James Saunders and family. Mr. Spurrell is employed with The Earle Freighting Service Limited.

The result of the March of Dimes collection has just been announced by Dr. Leslie Wells, who organized it. Proceeds amounted to four hundred and sixty-eight dollars and five cents.

A collection in aid of the Cancer Fund is now being made and it is hoped our citizens will support it to the best of their ability.

Miss Hilda Saunders returned home on Saturday, after graduating from the Wilfred Academy of Hair and Beauty Culture, of Boston, Mass. We understand she will be starting a beauty salon in the near future.

Mr. George Hedges, a former employee of Harvey & Co. Ltd. has joined the staff of The Earle Freighting Service Ltd.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Corner Brook spent the week end here, as guests of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Saunders.

The West End Unit of the United Church Women held its closing meeting for the season on Wednesday last. At 6:30 p.m. Mrs. G. E. Hedges, the leader, and the members, Motored to Dawe's Restaurant, Bay Roberts, where they enjoyed a very tasty meal, following which they held a short meeting. A very nice way to conclude a season's activities.

U. C. High School Prom

CARBONAR, May 20—The United Church held its annual Prom on Friday evening last. Following a turkey supper the assembly was addressed by Dr. Ray Barrett.

The regular part of the evening was spent in dancing to music supplied by the Commandos Orchestra of St. John's. It was a gala affair and the girls looked altogether attractive in their lovely gowns. One special guest was heard to say "he had never seen so many beautiful looking girls." They sure did look lovely.

Visits Bonavista Bay

HARBOR GRACE — Mr. and Mrs. Newton Morgan and family motored to Sandringham, B.B., on Saturday to be present at the consecration of the new Anglican Church by His Lordship Bishop J. A. Meaden which took place on Sunday. The Church was given the name of the Church of the Resurrection.

Mr. Morgan was invited to attend the service because of his connection with the congregation during his teaching period at Eastport five years ago when he acted as a layreader at Sandringham. The work on the new church had commenced then and as a courtesy to Mr. Morgan, he was invited to be present on the occasion of the consecration.

Hearing Concluded

HARBOR GRACE — The preliminary hearing in the case of 20-year-old William Ronald Smith charged with criminal negligence and failing to remain at the scene of the accident in the death of Mrs. Marcella Dawe of Bay Roberts in April last concluded at Harbor Grace on May 20, when after hearing sixteen witnesses in all. Enough evidence was found for Magistrate G. E. Trickett to commit the man to stand trial in the Supreme Court. Smith was released on signing a bond for $2,000, in two sureties of $1,000 each. He was represented by Mr. Noel Goodridge LL.B. in connection with this case. Madame Rolande Roien of the R.C.M.P. at Sackville, N.B. was brought in as a witness for the prosecution.

Building Activity Noted

HARBOR GRACE — Much building activity is noted in the town of Harbor Grace and the Town Council has issued permits for several constructions recently. Among these are four to Mr. Walter Pasha for the erection of four dwellings on LeMarchant Street, one to Geo. Faulkner for a dwelling in the east end, and one to Gordon Tetford for an extension to the store of his brother Mr. Robert Tetford, on Water Street.

New Fishery Officer

HARBOR GRACE — Mr. and Mrs. Kelley and four children, three boys and a two-week-old girl who had been guests at Pike's Hotel for the past few days have now moved into the apartment over Strapp's Pharmacy. Mr. Kelley has been appointed to the Fishery Inspection Department here.

Harbour Grace Personals

Miss Agnes O'Neill who had spent the past seven months visiting her nephew and family at Toronto returned home on Monday.

Miss Betty Parmiter, teaching at Grand Falls spent the long weekend holiday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Parmiter.

A daughter was born at the Grace Hospital, St. John's on May 21st to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Archibald. Congratulations.

Mrs. Robert Nutbeam who underwent surgery at Boston, Mass. last week is making favorable progress, her many friends will be pleased to learn. Mr. Nutbeam is presently visiting his wife.

Mrs. Richard Joy (of Washington, D.C., the former Magdalen Brown, of St. John's) visited Harbor Grace on Monday to see her sister-in-law, Miss Elizabeth Joy. It is Mrs. Joy's first visit in 37 years and she took time to visit Carbonar to see old friends there. Mrs. Joy was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kennedy of St. John's who were guests of Miss Rita Lee while here.

Mrs. Lillian Hider arrived from Toronto on Sunday to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Sinyard. Mrs. Hider is formerly from Heart's Content but is now employed with the C.N.T. at Toronto.
